

Lesson 1 General Introduction

While listening to several music examples we will tackle the following questions:

- What is Contextual Studies
- What is "western" music
- How to do research on music? (Asking contextual questions)
- In what ways can we listen to music?6
- Which knowedge domains are we going to explore?
- How can we learn to talk about music in an intelligent and sensible way about music?

What do we need to do that (tools) and where to get those tools?
